Next to a man's family and business nothing should stand nearer to his heart than the town in which he lives.

Gen. Gordon Here.

Gen. John B. Gordon the great Confederate leader spent Sunday night and a portion of Monday in the city en route from Miami to Ocala and Jacksonville, at which places he was to deliver lectures. During his short stay in the city Gen. Gordon found time to call on a few old friends, and many people who saw the old hero and recognized him introduced themselves.
He is one of the last of the great southern leaders in the war between the states, but his eye is undimmed and his mental powers are still as active as when, in the height of his power, he was a leader in the United States Senate.
Gen. Gordon was born in 1832, and when the civil war broke out entered the Confederate army as a captain of infantry. He rose through the various grades and in 1863 was a major general and corps commander. He was commander of the second army corps at Appomattox. He was wounded eight times, and bears on his face now an ugly scar by a Union minie-ball.
At the close of the war Gen. Gordon took a conspicuous place among the leaders of his state. He has twice been governor and twice U. S. Senator from Georgia, but resigned his seat during his last term in that body.
As an orator he has few superiors, and his lecture, "The Last Days of the Confederacy," has been delivered in all the principal cities of the United States.
Base Ball Tomorrow.
The professional men and bankers of Palatka will try conclusions with the local merchants in a game of baseball at the ball park at 3:15 p. m. tomorrow. The proceeds of the game will be turned over to the public library. John N. Walton has consented to act as umpire and will wear a coat of mail.
The professional men and bankers nine will be composed of the following: Chas. Furt, T. B. Merrill, D. M. Kirby, Rev. Douglas Matthews, Henry Strunz, John Crosby, S. J. Hilburn, E. E. Haskell and E. Noble Calhoun.
The opposing nine will consist of: C. E. Rowton, Frank Watters, M. M. Vickers, Eugene Gay, J. Ed. Lucas, J. H. Fry, Herbert Wilson, Cornelius Carman, W. A. Walton.
Ambulances have been arranged for to carry off any of the players who may suffer from heart failure, and a goodly supply of arnica and witch hazel will be provided to subdue bruises.
Chief Hagan will be present to preserve order, but the largest liberty will be allowed "rooters" for either side.
Waived Examination.
George Parker and Albert Mixer, surviving principals in the Georgetown tragedy of Sunday morning, Oct. 5th, and W. T. B. Varn, held as necessary, were before Judge Cox on Monday for a preliminary hearing. Calhoun & Calhoun represented Parker, Davis & Hilburn represented Mixer, and J. N. Blackwell appeared for Varn. Two witnesses only were examined on Monday. Tuesday morning, by agreement of the attorneys, the defendants waived examination, and the two principals were remanded to jail to await the action of the grand jury next month. Varn was put under bonds in the sum of $10,000, with two sureties, for his appearance before the circuit court. His bond was signed by his father and brother, and he was allowed to go.
During the day there was a large crowd at the court house and interest in the case was intense. Mrs. Parker and her daughter occupied seats inside the bar, and there were many of the friends of Mixer and Varn from up the river present.
Will Plant Irish Potatoes.
John Glisson, the well-known merchant and saw mill man of Bostwick, was in the city Monday and had this to say regarding the prospects of farmers in his section. "We have plenty of land at Bostwick which is equal, if not superior, to the potato lands of Hastings. Many of our people last year planted good crops of Irish potatoes but the coming season will see more than double the acreage planted that we had last spring. Our people all feel good and are prospering, but we are going into the potato business on a large scale, and expect to have lots of money this spring."
Mr. Glisson is shipping large quantities of lumber in car load lots to Jacksonville, and his mill is a paying investment.
C. D. C. Annual Convention.
The ninth annual meeting of the General Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will convene in the city of New Orleans, La., November 12th, 1902.
The rate will be one fare for the round trip. Tickets will be on sale at all stations from the 8th to the 12th of November, 1902. The official route selected is the Atlantic Coast Line in connection with the Louisville and Nashville Ry., and their various connections.
Board has been arranged for at $2.00 to $2.50 per day.
The transportation committee having secured exceptionally low rates and good service, would urge upon all delegates and daughters to attend this convention so that same concessions may be secured for future conventions.

MALARIA AND YELLOW JACK

(From N. Y. Herald, January 14, 1902.)
"The widow of Dr. Lazear, who, in the employ of the Government, went to Cuba, was inoculated with Yellow Fever through mosquito bites, and died, applied to Congress for relief to-day."
The above tells of the sad culmination of a series of experiments by the Government, all of which proved conclusively that the familiar mosquito is a dangerous vehicle for carrying Malaria, "Yellow Jack," and other malarial fevers.
Those who are exposed to mosquito or other malarial influences should take warning. Iron is the fighting element in the blood and provides nature with sufficient resistance to ward off disease. But if the blood is impure or impoverished, or if there is weakness, it means that the fighting qualities of the blood have been lowered, and consequently there is danger. If you would escape, keep the blood pure and properly nourished with

Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic

Houston, Tex., Aug. 1, 1901.
"I have used Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic myself and in my family for over twenty-five years, and can heartily recommend it. I regard it as particularly valuable to ward off malarial and other fevers."

John C. Powell to Wed.
Cards have been issued announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Effie Sellers McEachern of Marlow, Ga., to Mr. John C. Powell, the well-known turpentine operator of this city. The happy event will be celebrated at the home of the bride-elect's brother, Archibald McEachern, Savannah, at 8:30 a. m. Wednesday, Oct. 29th. Luncheon will be served at the DeSoto Hotel, at 1 o'clock, after which the bride and groom will leave for Florida.
The bride has many admiring friends in Florida and Mr. Powell, aside from being a large turpentine operator in Palatka, is secretary of the Turpentine Operators Association, with headquarters in Jacksonville.

Eclipse of the Moon.
A total eclipse of the moon takes place at midnight tonight and will be visible in Florida. The eclipse from beginning to end will last more than two hours, totality occurring at 12:10 o'clock Friday morning. Such phenomena never grow common or uninteresting, except to sleepy quadrupeds, fowls and reptiles, and even they show symptoms of enthusiasm, fear and wonder when eclipses are prolonged and pronounced. Eclipses of the moon are just as interesting without a telescope as with it. If tonight is clear the sight will be most interesting, as the moon is full at the hour the eclipse takes place.

Coming Home.
Rev. Fr. John O'Brien, pastor of St. Monica's Catholic church in this city is expected to arrive home to day, or to-morrow, from an extended visit to the home of his parents in Ireland.
